

UNIVERSITÄT ZU LÜBECK

Prof. Christopher BAUM

Born 13 April 1962 in Marburg a.d. Lahn

Abitur in Mainz, studies of Human Medicine in Essen, Freiburg and Hamburg

1989-1991 Internship at the Medical Clinic Borstel, Bad Oldesloe

1991 Doctorate (Dr. med.), University of Hamburg

1991–1992 Postgraduate studies in Molecular Biology, University of Hamburg

1991-1992 Research Assistant, Department of Toxicology, University of Hamburg

1993-1999 Research Associate and Team Leader, Heinrich-Pette-Institute Hamburg

1999 Habilitation and Venia Legendi in Molecular Medicine

2000 Research Assistant, Bone Marrow Transplantation, University Hospital Hamburg-Eppendorf

2000–2005 C3-Professorship for Stem Cell Biology, Hannover Medical School (MHH)

2006-2013 W3-Professorship and Head of Institute Experimental Hematology, MHH

2002-2009 Adjunct Professor of Pediatrics, University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati Children's Hospital

2007-2011 Ombudsperson for Good Scientific Practice, MHH

2007-2013 Dean of Research of the MHH

2013-2018 President of the MHH, Head of the Research and Teaching Department

since 2019 Vice President of the Universität zu Lübeck and Member of the Board of the UKSH